

Kite Flyers of Tasmania Inc. proudly presents 2017 Workshop with Guest Tutor Anke Sauer from Germany

Where:

- Camp Clayton, Ulverstone, Tasmania

Dates:

- 5pm Friday 17 November 2017 (Meet and greet)
- 18-19 November 2017 (Workshop)
- 9am Monday 20 November 2017 (Checkout)

Details:

Over the past 20 years Anke has been regarded as a leader in innovation and creativity in kite design and as an environmental installationist.

The workshop to be held on the weekend of the 18-19 November 2017 will be everybody's opportunity to spend some valuable time with Anke in the north-west of beautiful Tasmania. Anke will be tutoring design, construction concepts and techniques.

Accommodation is fully catered, inexpensive hostel style living.

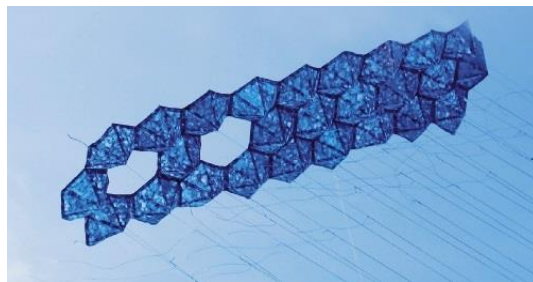

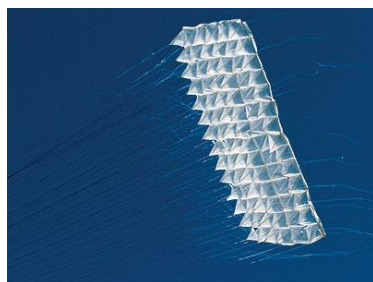

Accommodation has been booked for the nights of Friday 17th through Sunday 19th to allow for maximum time at the workshop.

For interstate and international visitors, the closest arrival airport is Devonport. Limited airport pickup from Launceston or Hobart may be available by prior arrangement.

This is a great and rare opportunity not to be missed.
